

INTRODUCTORY SPEECH REUNION 2013

It is my pleasure this evening to introduce our Guest Speaker, a Milltowneer through and through. Anyone growing up on Spring Street or any other street in town, probably came in contact with David Eagan.....especially if they were also late for school.

David graduated from Milltown School in 1961. Following High School he went to Holy Rosary Commercial School for one year..... challenging the Nuns.

He really didn't know what he wanted to do next but furthered his education by driving taxi for awhile until his mother intervened and said " You are not going to sit on your arse around here and do nothing. You get out there and get an education!"and so he did!

Throughout his teaching career, David finally settled in Perth-Andover teaching music and band, a talent he inherited from his mother Kathleen.

He also played with "Harry Rigby and The Thomists" throughout his University years.

David entertained the congregation royally, during Reunion 2004 about his years growing up in the Catholic church.... Much to the chagrin of the Pope.

So this evening, sit back, relax, and travel back in time, down memory lane, to those happy days growing up in Milltown.

Ladies and Gentlemen. Please join me in welcoming our Guest Speaker, David Eagan.
